Munich – The Charles Hotel, a Rocco Forte hotel, is now offering the most magical German experience – a picturesque trip to King Ludwig II's enchanting Neuschwanstein Castle and the surrounding charming villages of Bavaria in a vintage car of your choice. See firsthand why the famous and most visited castle in Germany was Disney's inspiration for Cinderella's palace.

After a lavish breakfast in Sophia's restaurant, guests will be picked up by a private guide in a vintage car of their choice to start the journey through beautiful Bavaria. First stop will be Marien bridge, a 19th century crossing overlooking the Pöllath Gorge with magnificent views of Neuschwanstein Castle against the backdrop of Tegelberg Mountain. After taking in the views, guests can experience the castle for themselves with a private guided tour to learn about its fascinating history.

Next, guests will travel to the picturesque village of Hohenschwangau for lunch while taking in the magnificent view of the Alpsee, one of the most beautiful lakes in the region. The journey continues on the scenic Romantic Road that winds through charming Bavarian medieval villages to Wieskirche, a rococo church with unique architecture. Take in "Lüftel", a traditional painting of the Houses of Bavaria when stopping in Oberammergau, a town that has become famous because of its passion for plays, which take place every 10 years.
