FLORENCE CELEBRATES NATALIA GONCHAROVA

RUSSIA'S REVOLUTIONARY ARTIST

FROM 28 SEPTEMBER UNTIL 12 JANUARY 2020 AT PALAZZO STROZZI

Hotel Savoy, a stylish Rocco Forte Hotel in Florence, is delighted to renew its collaboration with Palazzo Strozzi and invite guests to experience one of the most anticipated exhibitions of the year: Natalia Goncharova. A Woman of the Avant-garde with Gauguin, Matisse and Picasso. This retrospective dedicated to the revolutionary Russian artist will take place from 28 September 2019 until 12 January 2020 and guests can book the Hotel's exclusive cultural package "Natalia Goncharova at Palazzo Strozzi".

Influential, experimental and controversial, the artist and designer Natalia Goncharova made an indelible mark on Europe's avant-garde scene in the 20th century. The exhibition - organised by Fondazione Palazzo Strozzi and Tate Modern, London - will explore her unconventional life and career, presenting her rich and multifaceted artistic output with masterpieces from major international collections by celebrated artists including Gauguin, Matisse, Picasso and others. Taking visitors on a journey from the Russian countryside to Moscow and Paris, the exhibition features 130 artworks and gives an account of the unorthodox life of a woman who lived for her art and successfully forged her own unique fusion of tradition and innovation.
