AN UNFORGETTABLE ROMANTIC GETAWAY AWAITS YOU IN BERLIN

Stay at Hotel de Rome and experience the romantic side of Berlin

Berlin is the most popular city in Germany attracting millions of tourists year-round. From secret spots to picturesque picnics, the city has everything you need for a romantic escape and Hotel de Rome, a Rocco Forte hotel is the perfect starting point.

The city is full of romantic spots. From enjoying one of the 2,500 parks to floating down one of the three rivers or eight canals on a boat or simply taking a leisurely stroll across one of the 916 bridges that gives the city a feel of Venice, Berlin is the perfect backdrop for whatever your heart desires.

During the summer months take a private boat trip to enjoy the beauty of the surrounding areas. One in particular is on the "Marlene", which leads to Charlottenburg Castle. The atmosphere is just as romantic in the evening on a historic ship, with a route leading through the 'city of lights'. A picnic basket will be filled with nutritious delicacies by the hotel's chef, Davide Mazzarella for you to take along to experience an unforgettable picnic on Peacock Island in the Havel River, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. For the brave, the open-air dance sessions in the popular Monbijou Park is the place to be. Opposite the impressive Bode Museum, open-air tango and salsa regularly take place.

At the very top of the Kreuzberg Mountain in Viktoriapark you not only have the perfect romantic view that you can't find anywhere else in the capital, you can hear and enjoy the sights of the beautiful waterfall – a scene straight from a fairytale.
